

Relay is a very important feature to the deaf community. It is a valuable tool for them to communicate and for hearing people working with the deaf and HH community to function and survive in the Hearing world.